

EXPAND YOUR KNOWLEDGE

Strengthen your networking contacts; grow professionally and personally while contributing to the facilities industry. Get involved by joining one of the committees listed below and increase your ownership and understanding of NASFA. Generally, each committee holds a conference call once a month for no longer than one hour. It takes a small amount of your time to contribute to your association and stay connected.

Communications and Recognition Committee

The objectives of the committee are to communicate ideas, experiences and innovations regarding state facilities administration, heighten the visibility of the association and its activities and address all areas of recognition, such as the Innovations Awards program. The committee is responsible for the quarterly and weekly electronic newsletters, the Web site, the listservs, press releases, and related duties. The committee will recommend topics for teleconferences and Webinars to continually and cost-efficiently communicate between the members. In addition, the committee is responsible for developing methods to recognize member and organizations accomplishments. The NASFA Innovations Award Program is one such method that recognizes outstanding achievement by a state facility organization in establishing an innovative new program or improving an existing one. As part of the Innovations Awards program, the committee updates the awards criteria (as needed), reviews and evaluates the awards submissions and selects the winner and other recognitions. Conference Call – August 4, 2010 at 2:00 pm (ET)

Industry Liaison Committee

This committee is responsible for establishing and maintaining regular liaison communications between other facilities related industry organizations. As a result of such relationships, the committee will assist NASFA to develop positions, policies, guidelines and other statements deemed appropriate. The committee and other associations will work jointly to produce statements and publications that enhance the facilities profession, as well as assisting with outreach, marketing and education efforts. For more information contact Co-Chairs: ▪ Hope Davis, Massachusetts, P: 617-727-4030 x447, hope.davis@state.ma.us ▪ Mike Kenig, Holder Construction, P: 770-988-3260, mkenig@holder.com ▪ Conference Call – August 3, 2010 at 2:00 pm (ET)

Membership Committee

This committee is responsible for maintaining a diverse membership by increasing State, Corporate Affiliate, Other Governmental Units, Student, International, and Emeritus memberships. As a result, allowing its members to strengthen their networking contacts, grow professionally and personally, and enhancing the contributions made by its members to the facilities industry. It is also responsible for broadening the participation of members in association activities thereby expanding the skills, knowledge and experience present in the association. For more information contact Co-Chairs: ▪ John Boyle, North Dakota, P: 701-328-4002, jboyle@nd.gov ▪ Mike Wintz, VFA, P: 949-468-7179, mwintz@vfa.com ▪ Conference Call – July 19, 2010 at 2:00 pm (ET)

Reference & Resource Committee

This committee is working on gathering baseline data to quantify the scale and scope of the assets and property for which our members are responsible. This information will serve to demonstrate the broad and deep areas of involvement that we have in the building design, construction, operations, and maintenance areas, along with our property management and capital budgeting capacities. We also plan to develop an on-line guide with links to facilities-related documents, guidelines and regulations on topics of interest to NASFA members. The Guide will include information from each of the States and Corporate members that is relevant to the design, construction, energy efficiency and on-going operations of state facilities in the respective states. For more information contact Co-Chairs: ▪ Bill Laferriere, Vermont, P: 802-479-4462, bill.laferriere@state.vt.us ▪ Jim Filippi, Applied Data Systems, P: 763-694-8900 x4125, jimf@adsf-fm.com ▪ Conference Call – July 21, 2010 at 2:00 pm (ET)
